

Dear fellow Princetonians,

On behalf of the Alumni Association of Princeton University, it is my great honor to welcome you back to Old Nassau and Reunions 2018! Your class and APGA Reunion chairs, along with volunteers from dozens of alumni organizations working with dedicated campus partners, have once again created an extraordinary weekend. In these pages you will find a full schedule of programs and activities, ranging from athletic contests and student performances to community service projects, as well as class and departmental panels and receptions.

Alumni-Faculty Forums will feature distinguished alumni and faculty moderators speaking on a wide range of topics including cryptocurrency, the future of the Supreme Court, race relations, cybersecurity and the opioid crisis, just to name a few. If music is your passion, stop by the Reunions headquarters sites each evening for memorable entertainment, stroll over to the arches throughout campus to hear Princeton's a capella groups perform, spend Friday afternoon listening to groups from the past compete in the annual Alumni Battle of the Bands, and attend the Princeton University Band's Fred E. Fox '39 Memorial Concert Saturday morning on Cannon Green. Consider starting your Saturday with a kickboxing class or the 8th Annual Princeton University Reunions Run (PURR). At 2 p.m. sharp, the One and Only P-rade begins with an exciting break in tradition — the Old Guard will lead the P-rade! And for the grand finale, don't miss the spectacular lawn concert and our unrivaled fireworks on Saturday evening.

Going back is among the greatest and most longstanding of Princeton traditions. We hope that you will take this time to reconnect with old friends and meet new ones, engage your mind, enjoy the beautiful Princeton campus, and rediscover why Princeton really is "the best old place of all."

Have a wonderful weekend!

A Brief History of Princeton Reunions and the P-rade

All colleges encourage their graduates to maintain and demonstrate loyalty to their alma mater through return visits. However, no other institution welcomes all of its alumni and their families back for reunions on a yearly basis with the style and fanfare that is uniquely Princeton. Here is a short history of this ever-evolving annual tradition.

In the College of New Jersey's early years, alumni regularly returned to campus to attend Commencement exercises. Its 100th Commencement in June 1847 drew an impressive 700 graduates for a formal dinner, escalating the tradition into a larger event. Until 1859, all alumni gathered together, but in that year, Alfred Woodhull, Class of 1856, organized the first "class" reunion, a triennial. He astutely surmised that reasonable attendance could be expected, because in that era, anyone who returned to campus for Commencement three years after graduation qualified for an automatic master's degree (a practice lasting until 1892).

In 1861, a regiment bound for battle in the Civil War passing through Princeton captivated the College's students with its "skyrocket" cheer, which imitated the sound of fireworks — "sis" for the zooming rocket; "boom" for the explosion; and "ahhhh" as the crowd expressed its pleasure for the resulting light show. At Princeton, the "sis, boom, ah" skyrocket cheer evolved into Princeton's "locomotive," where word repetition and increasing speed emulate the sound of a train pulling out from a station. "Tiger" was likely added to the cheer in the late 19th century, when athletic uniforms began consistently using orange and black.

The P-rade officially began in the late 1890s, but it is actually the merged product of earlier traditions. Beginning in the Civil War era, alumni formally processed to Commencement Day dinner meetings. Then in 1888, Princeton and Yale University began scheduling one of their baseball games at Princeton on the Saturday before Commencement. Since this coincided with class dinners, alumni attendance was high and many classes formally marched to the game at University Field (located at the corner of Prospect Avenue and Olden Street). In October 1896, when the newly renamed Princeton University celebrated its sesquicentennial (150th anniversary), 800 Princeton undergraduates and 2,000 alumni took part in a mile-long procession through the campus and town; most carried an orange torch or lantern, and many classes wore coordinated costumes. Stimulated by the grandeur and organization of this parade, in 1897 all returning classes first joined to march in order to the baseball game. By 1906, a written description of the annual event said, "The Alumni Pee-rade on Saturday afternoon was quite as spectacular as usual; the bands, banners, transparencies, uniforms and vaudeville features encircling University Field with color and noise."

During early P-rades, the sole decoration worn by returning alumni was a small badge with class numerals on it. Gradually, classes began to distinguish themselves with creative hats, balloons and parasols; before long, younger classes wore colorful costumes, carried humorous signs, and often performed comic stunts. In 1912, some of that year's graduating class dressed in blue denim overalls and jackets to protect their regular clothes from spilled beer stains. One year later, the Class of 1913 adopted white beer jackets as their costume. By 1920, the jackets became a tradition with the addition of unique class logos. To this day, each graduating class designs its own class jacket, worn for the first time during Reunions weekend. Classes typically design new costumes for each "major" quinquennial reunion up until the 25th, when they receive a class blazer. The Association of Princeton Graduate Alumni introduced a Reunions Blazer in 2003 and all graduate alumni, regardless of graduation year, are unified in wearing this blazer each year. Following Princeton tradition, the APGA introduced its own Reunions jackets, similar to beer jackets, in 2018.

Reunions were canceled in 1917 and 1918 for World War I, so the "Victory Commencement" of 1919 featured a throng of 5,000 alumni for the largest Reunions and P-rade yet. An even longer "Victory Reunion" P-rade in 1946 following World War II (and the canceled Reunions of 1943, 1944, and 1945) brought back 7,300 alumni, with each class carrying service flags showing the number of classmates who served and were killed in the war.

In 1947, the Class of 1922 held its 25th Reunion in Holder Hall Courtyard, becoming the first on-campus reunion site. (Previous reunions were held in private homes and rented spaces in town.) But it was not until 1952, that liquor was permitted to be served at the on-campus sites.

Rain has put the occasional damper on the P-rade but only once — in 1953 — did it force a cancellation. Even then, some classes insisted on marching anyway! Over time, P-rades and Reunions increasingly became a family affair, but it was not until the undergraduate body became coeducational in 1969 that women were officially welcome to participate in the P-rade.

From the early- to mid-20th century, the P-rade route began at Nassau Hall, moved across campus to 1879 Arch, then down Prospect Avenue and around University Field to pass the president in his reviewing box. Construction of the EQuad on the site of University Field in the late 1960s changed the end of the route to the new Clarke Field south of Ivy Lane. This era also marked the last Yale-Princeton Commencement baseball game (1966), so the P-rade ending changed to an Alumni Association meeting welcoming the graduating seniors into the alumni body. In the early 1990s, the route was altered again to keep the P-rade entirely on campus — beginning at FitzRandolph Gate, going around Nassau Hall and Cannon Green, then down Elm Drive to finish on Poe Field.

While much of the P-rade has stayed the same over the years — the Nassau Hall bell tolls at 2 p.m. sharp — 2018 marks perhaps the greatest change in tradition. The Old Guard (classes beyond the 65th Reunion) will lead the P-rade after the Grand Marshal and other dignitaries, (including the President), an honor previously bestowed upon the 25th Reunion Class. The Old Guard typically ride in golf carts or occasionally walk, always drawing the loudest cheers from spectators. In recognition of his commitment to Reunions, the eldest returning alumnus from the oldest returning class has the special privilege of carrying the Class of 1923 Cane — a black wooden staff topped by a leaping silver tiger. Beginning in 1975, graduate alumni were invited to march between the 24th and 26th reunion classes, a tradition that has continued to this day. Throughout, dedicated alumni known as Marshals maintain order in their distinctive orange “Da Vinci” hats and blue blazers. The P-rade ends when the senior class marches onto Poe Field and gathers by the reviewing stand to be officially welcomed into the Alumni Association.

In 1996, in celebration of the University’s bicenquiquagenary (250th anniversary), a spectacular fireworks display was first held on Saturday night. The thousands of shells, custom soundtrack and tailored choreography of the 25-minute display quickly became a highlight and annual tradition during Reunions.

Increasing student body size and the inclusion of family members in the P-rade has swelled turnout and lively participation in the ever-more-colorful spectacle. Today, well over 25,000 alumni, family, and friends participate in this annual gathering, and no other university comes close to the pageantry, magnitude and ceremony of Princeton Reunions.

Campus Exhibits

Chancellor Green

HYPHEN-New Portrait Photography by Students and Alumni

The photography exhibit in the Upper and Lower Hyphens of Chancellor Green shows the work of current students and recent graduates, focusing on the University's diverse student population, their experiences at home and their lives at Princeton. The pictures reveal the hyphenated lives that students lead — between cultures, between identities, between spaces. Sponsored by the Campus Iconography Committee. Chancellor Green, Upper and Lower Hyphens.

Frist Campus Center

Beer Jackets and Reunion Jackets on P-rade

The incomparable Tiger Fashion Show! The Bob Rodgers '56 Reunions and Beer Jacket Collection archives over a century of Princeton history. Highlights from the collection are on display to commemorate the historic and ongoing tradition of celebratory jackets at Reunions. Sponsored by the Alumni Council Committee on Princetoniana. Frist Campus Center, Display Cases, Level 100.

James Johnson Exhibit

A photography exhibit on the life of James Collins Johnson offers a view into the six decades that Johnson, a freed slave, spent on and around Princeton's campus, from 1843 to 1902. A trial under the Fugitive Slave Act nearly had Johnson returned to his former owner, but a local woman purchased Johnson's freedom (a debt he subsequently repaid). Over the next 60 years, he worked on campus in a variety of capacities, most notably in the memory of students, as the campus's sole snack vendor. The Princeton University Trustees recently announced plans to name the easternmost arch in East Pyne Hall for Johnson. Sponsored by the Campus Iconography Committee. Frist Campus Center, East TV Lounge, Level 100.

Lewis Center for the Arts

The Big Time Senior Wrap-Up Kick-Off Blowout Expo '18

An exhibition of selected work in a variety of media by graduating seniors in the Program in Visual Arts. Thursday to Saturday, 10:00 AM to 8:30 PM. Sponsored by the Lewis Center for the Arts. Hurley Gallery, Lewis Arts complex.

Office of International Programs

10th Annual International Eye Photo Exhibit

Hosted by the Office of International Programs, in collaboration with the Princeton Institute for International and Regional Studies, the Program in Russian, East European and Eurasian Studies and the Department of Slavic Languages and Literatures, the exhibition showcases the experiences of Princeton undergraduates through photographs taken while they participated in international study, internships, service and research. Thursday to Sunday, 9:00 AM to 5:00 PM. Sponsored by the Office of International Programs. Louis A. Simpson International Building, Office of International Programs, A Level.

Prospect House, Lawn

Evaporative Cooling Pavilion

Confronting the aesthetic and the performative within the architectural discipline, this installation pursues a study of indirect evaporative cooling as a technology that can be enabled through both formal and technical development. The installation aims to challenge notions of how we understand the enclosure as it relates to the thermal performance of a building — the pavilion itself is entirely unclosed, consisting only of an elevated roof whereby the air underneath the roof is the same temperature as its ambient surroundings, yet cooling is possible through the principle of radiative heat exchange between the human body and a (cool) surface, demonstrating a new paradigm through which to understand the production of thermal conditioning and proposing a building-without-walls model for generating ‘interior’ climate. Sponsored by the High Meadows Foundation Fund (managed by the Princeton University Office of Sustainability), Silman Associates Structural Engineers, Structurflex, C.H.A.O.S. Lab, Princeton. Prospect House, Lawn.

Princeton University Art Museum

Frank Stella Unbound: Literature and Printmaking

Between 1984 and 1999, the American artist Frank Stella executed four ambitious print series, each of which was named after a literary work that had a distinctive narrative structure: the Passover song “Had Gadya,” a compilation of Italian folktales, the epic novel Moby-Dick, and the illustrated encyclopedia Dictionary of Imaginary Places. Through these four bodies of work, Stella evolved printmaking projects of unprecedented scale and complexity that both transformed the artist’s visual language — as well as his working process in all media — and represent a technical and expressive milestone in printmaking. Featuring 41 prints from these four major series alongside their literary catalysts, “Frank Stella Unbound: Literature and Printmaking” will be the first exhibition to focus exclusively on the vital role that world literature played in his powerful exploration of the print medium. Thursday, 10:00 AM to 10:00 PM; Friday to Sunday, 10:00 AM to 5:00 PM. Princeton University Art Museum.

Seeley G. Mudd Manuscript Library

Learning to Fight, Fighting to Learn: Education in Times of War

Since its founding, Princeton University has been shaped by every major war, whether it took place on American soil or halfway around the world. Most colleges and universities in the United States have had to address their role during wartime. Traditional college students are at the prime age of enlistment, and when war loomed, academic institutions looked for the best ways to continue to educate students while also preparing them for combat. The Princeton community has borne the demands of conflict from the colonial period forward. Through the Princeton University Archives and the collections of the Public Policy Papers, this exhibition reviews how education and the pursuit of knowledge evolved over the span of 200 years through the lens of a series of wars. Thursday and Friday, 9:00 AM to 4:45 PM; Saturday, 9:00 AM to 11:30 AM. Wiess Lounge at the Mudd Manuscript Library, 65 Olden Street.

Woodrow Wilson School of Public and International Affairs

Beirut: Selling the American Dream

In her Beirut series, Manal Abu-Shaheen plays with perception and reality by photographing western advertisements in the midst of the crumbling urban landscape of her birth city, Beirut. The huge billboards that loom over the city harken back to drive-in movies where the viewer is transported to another place and time as they sit in their car. Thursday through Sunday, 8:00 AM to 5:00 PM. Sponsored by the Woodrow Wilson School of Public and International Affairs. Robertson Hall, Bernstein Gallery.

Campus Information

Alcohol Policy at Princeton University The University alcoholic beverage policy is designed to be consistent with the laws of the State of New Jersey and also reflects the need for mutual respect and personal responsibility within a diverse community. The University and the Town of Princeton prohibit:

- Transport of an open container of alcohol across common spaces of the University. (Common spaces are areas such as lounges, open campus, meeting halls, etc., outside of Reunions headquarters.)
- Possession of a container of alcohol by persons under the age of 21.
- Serving of alcohol to persons under the age of 21.

Alcohol: The State of New Jersey The state has very strict laws concerning driving under the influence of alcohol and drugs. Persons found guilty of DUI charges are subject to substantial penalties, including fines and imprisonment. In addition, the Town of Princeton prohibits the transporting of open containers of alcohol in public places, such as streets and sidewalks (including Prospect Avenue). Please note that golf carts are considered vehicles for purposes of DUI and open container laws. Princeton University does not condone the possession, use, manufacture or distribution of illegal substances or drug paraphernalia of any kind in any amount, or the possession, use, manufacture or distribution of prescription drugs without a prescription. Please note that New Jersey state law classifies heroin, cocaine, amphetamines, LSD, marijuana and hashish, among other substances, as “controlled dangerous substances.” New Jersey law does provide some immunity for those who seek immediate medical assistance on behalf of themselves or others in drug overdose situations.

- Guests of alumni who are minors (with a registered wristband) from the classes of 2005-1953 (15th- 65th), Old Guard, and APGA will not have access to the 5th and 10th reunion sites

Computing Resources During Reunions weekend, Princeton's Office of Information Technology (OIT) provides wireless internet access to all campus visitors. The service is free of charge and requires no registration. Your use of the Visitor Wireless Service constitutes your agreement to abide by the University's Acceptable Use Policy, posted at princeton.edu/itpolicy. If you do not agree to abide by that policy, do not connect to this network.

Wireless Networking Wireless networking is available in nearly all of Princeton's buildings and in many outdoor spaces such as Cannon Green and Reunions headquarters sites. Visitors should connect to the network called "puvisitor."

Getting Computer Help While on Campus The OIT Support and Operations Center (also known as the "Help Desk") is open 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, to help with computing and networking problems. To speak with a Help Desk consultant on the phone, call 609-258-HELP (4357) and press option 1. For online chat, go to the OIT homepage (princeton.edu/oit) and click on the link on the right for "Live Chat Online." Alumni should click the link "I do not have Princeton credentials." You can also contact the Support and Operations Center by sending an email to helpdesk@princeton.edu.

Computing Facilities Available during Reunions There are several computing facilities ("clusters") available for your use during Reunions weekend. These machines will have a special Reunions configuration and will not require you to log in. You can simply visit one of the facilities listed below and gain access to the Internet. Reunions computer clusters will be located as follows:

- McCosh B59
- Frist Campus Center 200
- Frist Campus Center 300

Drones During Reunions, the campus is a designated "no drone zone" for unmanned aircraft (i.e., model aircraft, quadcopters, drones). The University unmanned aircraft policy, which is designed to be consistent with Federal Aviation Administration regulations, places restrictions on the operation of unmanned aircraft in order to protect campus safety, security and privacy. The University prohibits drone flights throughout Reunions weekend, including the P-rade and fireworks.

Emergency Preparedness Individuals are ultimately responsible for their personal safety and should take appropriate action in emergency situations. Adults must take responsibility for the safety of children in their care. In the event of an emergency, information will be provided by Public Safety officers and sent through the Princeton Events app. In limited situations, the University may use the Emergency Blue Light Phones with Towers which would broadcast a message. In case of an on-campus emergency, please call Public Safety at 609-258-3333. Additional information about emergency preparedness can be found on the University's Emergency Management website at emergency.princeton.edu.

Fireworks Fireworks start at 9:15 PM following the lawn concert on Finney and Campbell Fields. Due to traffic and road closures starting at 7:00 PM (Faculty Road – from Washington Road to FitzRandolph) and 8:45 PM (sections of Washington Road, Western Way, FitzRandolph, and Roper Lane), it is recommended that pedestrians/golf carts use Streicker Bridge to access the fireworks viewing areas.

For alumni and guests celebrating their 63rd reunion or later and those attending APGA Reunions, housing check-in will be at your Headquarters site. At check-in, you will receive your keycard, which will provide access to all entryway doors in your assigned dormitory and your room. Please carry your keycard with you at all times. Dormitory room doors will automatically lock when the door is closed. For your protection and the security of your possessions, always keep your room door closed and locked – do not prop the door. For lockouts or replacement keycards, please contact a member of the student crew at the Headquarters site located closest to your dormitory. Where applicable, linens will be distributed to your room in advance of your arrival. All keycards and linens must be returned on Sunday by Noon to the closest Headquarters site.

Keycards will be deactivated at noon.

All dormitory entryway doors within the Headquarters sites will be locked between the hours of 2:30 AM and 8:00 AM and will only be accessible with a keycard. Between 8:00 AM and 2:30 AM, only dormitory entryways within the Headquarters sites that lead to restrooms will be unlocked; all others will be locked. All dormitory entryway doors located outside of the Headquarters sites will be locked at all times, except the dormitories located along the P-rade route for restroom access during the P-rade between the hours of 1:30 PM and 5:30 PM.

Lightning Storms: Emergency Preparedness Individuals are ultimately responsible for their personal safety and should take appropriate action when threatened by lightning. Adults must take responsibility for the safety of children in their care during severe weather. However, awareness of certain lightning safety guidelines can greatly reduce the risk of injury or death.

1. Identify in advance a location (e.g., building, bus, car) that would be safe during a thunderstorm. Locations that offer little or no protection from lightning include tents, golf carts, or open shelters, such as parking garages.
2. Public Safety will attempt to notify your reunion site if a bad storm is expected and if evacuation of the headquarters site is recommended. However, when you first see lightning or hear thunder, go to the safe location immediately.
3. Avoid standing under Reunions tents during severe storms; while tents provide protection from the rain, they do not provide protection from lightning. If lightning is striking nearby when you are outside, you should:
  - a. Crouch down and put your feet together. Place your hands over your ears to minimize hearing damage from thunder.
  - b. If part of a group, spread out. You should avoid being in close proximity (minimum of 15 feet) to other people.
4. Suspend outdoor activities for at least 30 minutes after the last observed lightning flash or thunder clap or until your reunion receives the "All Clear" message from Public Safety.

5. Persons injured by a lightning strike do not carry an electrical charge and can be handled safely. Apply First Aid procedures to a lightning victim if you are qualified to do so. Call Public Safety Emergency at 609-258-3333.

Lost and Found If you discover you have lost an item over the weekend, please check first with the student crew at your major reunion headquarters. Please submit the online Reunions Lost and Found registration form: alumni.princeton.edu/ReunionsLostandFound. The Office of Alumni Affairs crew also collects lost and found items, and you may stop by Maclean House (73 Nassau Street) or contact this crew directly for information (609-258-3468). Shortly after Reunions, some unclaimed lost and found items will be moved to Public Safety (609-258-1000).

Medical Services If you or your companions need assistance, medical help is available for bee stings, cardiac symptoms, or anything in between. Please program your cell phone with Public Safety's Emergency number, 609-258-3333, or dial 9-1-1 from any Blue Light phone or campus landline. Dialing 9-1-1 on a cell phone routes to the nearest emergency call center and may slow emergency response time.

Nursing Rooms A dedicated private room will be available Friday and Saturday from 9:00 AM to 11:00 PM in Frist Campus Center, Room 114; and during the P-rade in Whig Hall and Dillon Gym.

Parking All entrances to the University will be closed to vehicles during Reunions. To access the campus shuttle, park cars in Lot 20, off Elm Drive and Faculty Road, Lot 21, next to Jadwin Gym, or the fields across from Lot 21. Accessible parking is available in Lot 16 with access to ADA-compliant shuttles. Reserved parking is available in Lot 16 for the Old Guard and 65th Reunion ONLY. Please refer to the foldout 2018 Reunions Headquarters and Parking map for details.

P-rade The P-rade begins at 2:00 PM on Saturday with the Old Guard leading the way. Alumni and their families are welcome to march. Be sure to check the P-rade map in this booklet, in the Reunions issue of the Princeton Alumni Weekly, in the Princeton Events app, or on posters at your major reunion headquarters site and around campus for the route and staging area for your class. Orange signs will also be posted along the route. Refer to the P-rade map for concession stand locations. The finale is on Poe-Pardee fields. Parents of members of the Class of 2018 are encouraged to sit on the bleachers reserved for them at the finale for the best views and photos. As always, please help keep the P-rade moving!

Public Safety

Contact The Department of Public Safety (DPS) is located at 200 Elm Drive, on the southern end of main campus. DPS operates 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. The Communication Center and Welcome Desk are located on the first floor at 200 Elm Drive. For non-emergencies, dial 609-258-1000, and for all immediate emergencies, please call 609-258-3333.

On-Campus Emergencies Dialing 9-1-1 from any University landline phone connects you to the Department of Public Safety's emergency line. If you are on campus and dial 9-1-1 from your cell phone you will automatically be routed through the state-approved 9-1-1 Switched Telephone Network and be connected to the appropriate state-approved Public Safety Answering Point (PSAP), which would, in most situations, be the Princeton Police Department. If you want to reach DPS quickly and easily, we suggest you program your cell phone with 609-258-3333.

There are numerous Blue Light communication towers and Blue Light phones throughout campus. With the push of a button, the user can communicate directly with DPS Communication Center. This enhanced technology also allows DPS to send out emergency broadcast alerts (e.g., seek shelter due to an impending lightning storm) as needed. The location of each tower is digitally displayed to the DPS Communication Center. For more information on safety and security, please go to the Public Safety website, publicsafety.princeton.edu.

Restrooms Reunions attendees will have access to designated restrooms in most dormitories located within the Headquarters sites. Dormitory entryways leading to these restrooms will be unlocked during the following hours:

- Thursday: Noon to 2:30 AM
- Friday: 8:00 AM to 2:30 AM
- Saturday: 8:00 AM to 2:30 AM
- Sunday: 8:00 AM to Noon

Note that during the P-rade between the hours of 1:30 PM and 5:30 PM, dormitories with public restrooms located along the P-rade route will be available.

In addition, there are restroom trailers and/or gender-inclusive portable units available at the following campus locations:

- Baker Rink Lot (5th satellite registration)
- Boathouse
- Dillon Court Walk
- Dillon Gymnasium, near tower
- East Pyne, near Cannon Green
- Elm Drive, near Witherspoon Hall
- Forbes College
- Graduate College
- Lot 28 (hotel bus pick-up)
- Poe Field
- U-Store Courtyard, near Laughlin
- West Windsor Athletic Fields
- Whig Hall
- Whitman College lawn, near 1981 Hall

Transportation — Reunions Rover In addition to providing campus shuttles and hotel buses, the University coordinates the Reunions “Rover.” The Rover is a student-driven golf cart transport service for alumni and guests with mobility impairments and in need of a quick ride during Reunions weekend. The Rovers make continuous loops around campus with drop-offs near popular event locations and headquarters sites. Rover carts will be clearly marked (based on designated routes) and will make continuous loops around campus.

Baker-Clio Express: Connects Baker Rink wristbanding location and upper campus during peak hours.

Forbes/Lot 16: Connects Forbes College to Lot 16 and Baker Rink.

Baker Rink/Lot 21: Connects Lot 21 to main campus and Baker Rink.

Elm Drive: Service to TigerTransit stops on Elm Drive. No buses on Elm Drive during Reunions.

Each of the routes will include a stop at Baker Rink, Lot 23 and the Dinky station. Please feel free to wave down a Rover driver if a ride would be helpful. In an effort to increase safety and reduce emissions, the Reunions Rover will be replacing the bus service that is usually offered on Elm Drive. The routes and times of Rover service will be posted across campus and at each headquarter site.

Transportation — Campus Shuttles The Office of Alumni Affairs provides a shuttle service to help you move around the campus and from the main parking lots (see 2018 Reunions Sites and Parking map foldout).

There are three campus shuttle routes:

- Central Line (Main Campus)
- East Line (Lot 21)
- Forbes Line

Note that because of special events, area construction, and traffic, shuttles may need to be rerouted and routes combined. A real-time shuttle tracker is available through the Princeton Events app.

The shuttle service hours are:

Thursday: 1:00 PM to Midnight
Friday: 8:00 AM to 2:00 AM
Saturday: 8:00 AM to 2:00 AM
Sunday: 8:00 AM to Noon

*Limited service during the P-rade between 2:00 PM and 5:30 PM

Transportation — Hotel Shuttles The bus stop for hotel return shuttles will be in Lot 23, and drop off will be at the West Garage (near Baker Rink). Hotels serviced by this program are available Thursday afternoon through Saturday.

Locomotive Cheer

Princeton's first cheer, "Hooray, hooray, hooray! Tiger Siss-boom-ah, Princeton!" was adapted from the "skyrocket" cheer of the Seventh Regiment of New York City as they passed through Princeton on their way to Washington a few days after the outbreak of the Civil War. The cheer was intended to simulate the launch, explosion and reaction to a firework.

Sometime in the 1890s, the skyrocket cheer developed into the "locomotive," Princeton's longest-used and most distinctive cheer, which starts slowly and picks up increasing speed, suggesting the sound of a locomotive:

Hip! Hip!
Rah, Rah, Rah,
Tiger, Tiger, Tiger,
Sis, Sis, Sis,
Boom, Boom, Boom, Ah!
Princeton! Princeton! Princeton!

Need to Know

Old Guard Leads the P-rade

The P-rade starts at 2 p.m. sharp! Please arrive promptly to cheer the Old Guard!

Princetoniana “Take It or Leave It” Tent

Get your paws on another alum’s unwanted Princeton memorabilia! The “Take It or Leave It” tent is back for Reunions 2018. Come peruse the array of orange-and-black items anytime Thursday through Saturday, 9:00 AM until 9:00 PM, at the East Pyne Tent.

Public Safety

Make Public Safety your first call in an emergency. Public Safety (200 Elm Drive) can expedite emergency services by coordinating with local responders.

- Dial 609-258-3333 from a cell phone.
- Dial 911 from a campus phone or call box.

Disclaimer

Photographs and recordings taken by anyone authorized by Princeton University during Reunions may be used in publications, both electronic and print, at the discretion of the University.

Please Help Protect the P-rade

- Use trash receptacles along the route and recycle. No glass containers are allowed. Support recycling by helping EcoReps discard items properly.
- When watching the marchers, stay back from the curb.
- Keep a brisk pace along the parade route, apace with your family and friends.
- To keep things clean and safe for everyone, keep pets off the route.
- Put some locomotion in your locomotives! Don’t stand in place while on the route.

PRINCETON ALUMNI WEEKLY

After Reunions, visit Princeton Alumni Weekly Online to view images and videos from the weekend. A selection of #PrincetonReunions photos from readers will appear in our July issue. paw.princeton.edu
